

An Easier Transition to New EHR Software

Just the thought of transitioning your EHR software can feel overwhelming. But when you know you need to do it because it will ultimately improve your workflow, where do you start? Your best bet is to partner with a healthcare software company that's invested in helping you make a smooth transition. At Collain, that's exactly what we do. With more than 40 years in the software industry and licensed clinicians on staff who understand what you're dealing with, our team is focused on providing you with the best EHR software and an easier transition process from the start.

ROADBLOCK 1:

LONG TRAINING TIMES

New EHR software requires training for your staff, which can take a really long time as they get accustomed to the new system.

OUR SOLUTION

QUICK GUIDES RIGHT IN WORKFLOWS

We provide easy access to quick guides right in workflows, allowing for fast and easy uptake by your staff so they can easily adjust to the new system.

ROADBLOCK 2:

JUST ANOTHER SYSTEM TO UPDATE

Your staff is required to update multiple systems and use multiple devices to document and track information all day long, and switching to new EHR software can add to their workload.

OUR SOLUTION

CONSOLIDATE INTO ONE POINT OF CARE SOLUTION

We consolidate everything into one POCs so your staff can cut down on their documentation time by having everything in one easy-to-use, portable system.

The Results:

- » 50-75% reduction of overtime hours
- » 80% reduction in training time
- » 50% faster documentation

ROADBLOCK 3:

COSTLY DATA TRANSFER

When it's time to change your current EHR software, it often signals that significant additional costs will be required.

OUR SOLUTION

COMPREHENSIVE DATA MIGRATION

We incorporate a comprehensive data migration system to ensure a successful transfer from your previous EHR system to ours, resulting in a less expensive transition.

Here's what our clients are saying

"Utilization of the Collain software from our end users experience has been outstanding. Due to the ease of use we can gather the data we need to assist our facilities in improving quality outcomes. The openness to listen to your customers has played a huge role in our success. We look forward to continuing to grow with you in this changing industry."

PENNY MARSHALL, RN
StoneGate Senior Living

"We have had surveys in almost all of the centers, either during or since implementation and have not had any negative survey outcomes resulting from the EHR product and, in most cases, the EHR has proved to support us during the survey. I highly recommend Collain as an EHR partner."

SYLVIA ROWE, RN, MSN, LNHA
